LATONIA DISAPPOINTMENTS

FAVORITES FARE POORLY AND BAD WEATHER CONTRIBUTES TO A BLUE MONDAY.

Grover Hughes Runs One of His Good Races When Not Expected—Bonanza First in a Close Finish—Broomsedge Wins.

Cincinnati, O., October 18.—Grover Hughes displayed an acrobatic performance when he accounted for the three-quarters handicap at Latonia today from a band of good sprinters after a well maintained effort and being a contender from the start. Vogue landed second place and Prince Hermis was third. The winner showed much speed this afternoon, as he often has done before.

Wet and disagreeable weather detracted much from the racing, in addition to reducing the attendance from its former good standard. The volume of speculation also slumped, but was surprisingly good on the whole. Some of the contests were hard fought and in the case of Bonanza and Father Riley the last stride determined the result. Backers of favorites again fared poorly, but all the winners came in for liberal support.

Jefferson Livingston contributed two of today's favorites of the afternoon in Sansyming and White Crown. The first named landed second, Alex Getz beating him handily, but White Crown failed to gain a place, Broomsedge, Transport and Joe Stein dividing the purses in the order named. Impressive was the first favorite to get to the finish in front. Prince Hermis was the next to fail. Bonanza was the choice in the fifth and Hocnir in the sixth. The latter's defeat by Royal Interest was a costly jolt for his many supporters. He might have won had Martin allowed him to race out into a long lead instead of employing the restraining methods he did for the first half mile.

The four broodmares and foals bought by trainer Cliff Hammon in England, for E. R. Bradley's account, have been shipped and are expected in New York October 23.

Grover Hughes' improved showing this afternoon may have been due to his running without bar plates.

Jockeys Guy and Herbert today piloted their first winners of the fall season on a Kentucky track.

Following Royal Interest's victory he was bought by J. W. Goldblatt for $750 at private sale.

To dissolve a partnership in Ringling and Miss Fielder, the two were offered at auction before the racing and were bought by F. D. Weir for $500 and $300 respectively. Wilhite was also sold by auction and bought by W. F. Knebelkamp for $1,150. W. G. Yanke also sold on private terms the horses Billy Joe to R. P. Dickinson and Oakland to W. E. Applegate. The sale of the trio leaves W. G. Yanke with only Brave, which he has turned out at W. F. Schulte's farm near Louisville. Yanke will go to California next winter.

Advices from Joseph A. Murphy, general manager of the New Orleans racing, state that the improvement and repair of the fair grounds are progressing steadily, also that Messrs. Campbell and Pearce, who recently tendered their resignations, will again serve on the executive committee. Applications for stall room by horsemen intending to race in the crescent city continue numerous and additional accommodations will have to be built.

W. Walker advanced Impressive $500 over her entered price of $400, but failed to get her.

Edward McBride and trainer Tom Shannon arrived yesterday to attend the yearling sales to be held beginning tomorrow. During the afternoon he bought privately from E. R. Bradley three colts. The price paid for George Smith by John Sanford, according to trainer Shannon, was $20,000, with the proviso that $5,000 more shall be paid if the horse wins a certain amount next year.

Broomsedge came back to the stand badly cut around the legs and bleeding profusely.

General Manager Hachmeister is making elaborate preparations for ladies' day, which will be next Wednesday. Beginning that day, and every day thereafter for the remainder of the meeting, aeroplane flights by noted aviators will be one of the features between the racing. The flying machines to be used will be of the passenger-carrying type.

J. W. May advanced Shyness $400 over her entered price of $400; but failed to get her.

PREPARING BRISKLY AT NEW ORLEANS.

That there will be no catering to the poorer class of people in the coming race meeting of the Business Men's Racing Association was evidenced yesterday when formal announcement was made that the price of admission to the grounds for men will be two dollars and for women one dollar. The free list, as last winter, will be absolutely suspended. No minors, whether accompanied by parents or not, will be admitted to the grounds, and the same attention to details that marked last winter's meeting and which caused, at its close, to be carried to the north the report that it was the best policed meeting ever held in the states, will be maintained.

While the general admission will give all privileges, every part of the grounds will be policed and whatever betting is allowed will be made merely an incident to the racing.

After a conference held yesterday between Manager Murphy and A. B. Wheeler, Jr., the Louisiana Jockey Club agreed to paint the grandstand and paddock in oil and the work will be started in the next few days so that the grounds will soon be one of the show places of the south.

It was said to have been an old trick in the civil war when the rival trenches were close together, to draw the rifle fire of the enemy by placing a cap on a bayonet and holding it above the trench. Mr. Murphy used these tactics yesterday when he wired to Joe McLennan at Laurel, Md., asking him what in his opinion would be the number of horses necessary to take care of here from that section.

The answer shot the cap off the bayonet. It read: "Impossible to say on such short notice, but feel positive that the owners of 400 horses will want to race from this section alone."

On top of that in the late mail came a letter from Jack Campbell at Latonia asking in addition to what he has sent stalls for J. B. Respess, A. W. Hoots, Jack Weaver, J. H. Nichols, T. M. Irvin, W. H. Frey, W. R. Sallee and W. Covington.

Mr. Murphy at once took the matter up with President Rennyson and from now on there will be some busy times at the fair grounds, building new stalls to take care of the extraordinary demand.

What the Business Men's Racing Association is facing now is the problem that the hotel men and owners of boarding houses in the city will have to face at no distant date. Unless all signs fail, New Orleans will be called on to take care of more people this winter than ever in its history.—New Orleans Picayune of October 16.

HONEYWOOD COMING OVER TO NEVADA.

Some months ago, in furtherance of his determination to make his Nevada establishment a breeding farm of the first rank, George W. Wingfield concluded to buy an English stallion of high class racing credentials and ultra-fashionable breeding. On consideration, last year's St. Leger winner, Black Jester was selected and negotiations for his purchase opened. His owner, J. B. Joel, was willing to sell and, after some correspondence, the price of $35,000 was agreed upon and the deal was closed subject to the condition that the colt was to pass through a veterinary examination satisfactorily. In a letter Mr. Joel said that but for the conditions brought about by the war, he would never have considered an offer of less than $100,000 for Black Jester.

Mr. Wingfield sent his agent, Mr. M. P. Guilliams and his veterinary, Dr. Bamberger, to England to conduct the examination agreed upon, as well as to purchase other horses for the Nevada turfmen and breeder. Evidently Black Jester failed to pass the tests agreed upon, for the deal fell through and Mr. Guilliams instead of taking the colt, purchased the less noted colt Honeywood from Sol Joel for the reported price of 3,000 guineas, or $15,600. Both colts are sons of Polymelus, so the only difference in breeding comes through their dams, Black Jester being from Absurdity, by Melton, while Honeywood is from Honey Bird, by Friar's Balsam, and is probably the better-bred horse of the two.

In racing merit Black Jester was superior to Honeywood, but the latter was a good racer and won the Caterham Plate, Nottinghamshire Foal Stakes, Buckenham Stakes and Boscawen Stakes when a two-yetar-old, and the following year won the Cambridgeshire Handicap, beating among others, Ambassador, Diadumenos, Black Jester, Maiden Erlegh, Nassau, Santoi and the American horses Outram and Cheerful. Honeywood is a brown in color and described as a charming horse to look at and beautifully balanced. Undoubtedly he should prove an acquisition of great value and is probably now on his long journey to his future home. His dam, Honey Bird, died the year he was foaled. She was a half-sister to the Cesarewitch winner Wargrave, as well as to Maid of the Mint, dam of the Epsom Derby winner Spearmint.

NOTES OF THE TURF FROM OTHER LANDS.

Tod Sloan will shortly appear in London in vaudeville as the hero of a racing play.

A. T. Wagstaff, handicapper to the Pretoria Racing Club, has joined the Pretoria Company of the South African Overseas Contingent.

The smart four-year-old Flying Orb has been taken out of training and the son of Orby—Stella has left Ogbourne for his owner's stud at Ballykisteen, near Limerick Junction, where he will make his deubt next year as a sire. Santoi and Barcadaile are the others sires at that stud. When in training the son of Orby won several high-class races, including the Portland Plate at Doncaster and the Stewards' Plate at Liverpool.

Silver Star, yet another useful two-year-old out of J. B. Joel's Doris, made his debut in the Boscawen Stakes at Newmarket, September 29, and although he was beaten, it was only by the shortest of heads that he failed to land the odds laid upon him. Silver Star is a youngster of shapely dimensions, having more reach about him than White Star, and not so "stuffy," while he moves with machine-like precision. Sunstar was by Sundridge and Silver Star being by a son of Sundridge he is, therefore, three-parts brother to the Derby winner.

At Randwick nowadays the training track gallops recorded at all distances are much faster than in comparison to races than, say, twenty years ago. The difference in training shoes is responsible, the grip given by the generally-adopted concave shoe enabling a horse to act much better than with the old-style flat shoe. Discussing the matter at Randwick recently, P. Nolan remarked that experience had proved to him that with the weight of iron actually the same, a horse could gallop a mile nearly three seconds faster with concave than with flat shoes. At Randwick, flat and heavy shoes went right out of favor after R. J. Mason cleared the board with his lightly-shod New Zeland team in 1905. Mason, who was a smart runner in his early days—and is not too slow for an old 'un now—probably looked at it that he never ran in blucher boots when training, and applied the same principle to his horses.—Sydney Referee.

MIDDLE PARK PLATE WON BY ARGOS.

The Middle Park Plate, frequently called the "Two-Year-Old Derby" in England, was run at Newmarket last Friday and was won by L. Neumann's bay colt Argos, by Sundridge—Mesango, with J. B. Joel's bay colt Sirian, by Sun Star—Sweet Lassie second and the Duchess of Newcastle's bay colt Gratian, by Valens—Santiana third. The Middle Park Plate is a dash of three-quarters of a mile and was the most notable event captured by Borrow in the course of his racing in England.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

It fell to T. McTaggart to lead our jockeys in the course of last week's racing, six winning mounts falling to his share. He has been riding with skill, vigor and much succees this year and is a first-rate jockey. In the matter of percentage of winning mounts he stands second to Butwell. J. McCahey had five winning mounts last week and ranked second to McTaggart, A. Mott and E. Martin finishing in a tie for third place, with a credit of each having won four races. With only two major tracks in operation the opportunities for advancement are not now so good as they were several months back and changes in relative rank are less probable. The records of our thirty leading riders, up to and including last Saturday, were:

NEW AUSTRALIAN RACING INVENTION.

How often one sees a horse going well in a race at one moment, and looking to have a big chance, only to be in difficulties immediately afterwards. In many cases the explanation forthcoming is that the saddle slipped, or, as in the instance of Epsom Lad in the Eclipse Stakes, that it broke, his rider, Gomez, holding it together with one hand, and, despite this drawback, succeeding in winning the race by a head from Ian, which in turn was only a head in front of Disguise. For one race won in such circumstances, however, many are lost. Mishaps of the kind are mostly due either to the undue strain caused by tight girthing, or to the horse swelling himself out when being saddled, and thus counteracting the endeavor to girth him up sufficiently. Hitherto, moreover, tight girthing has been responsible for various evils, girth-gall for example, while in many cases the pressure of the girth, by preventing the respiratory organs from having full play, means all the difference between winning and losing races. Many horses that have gained a reputation for untrustworthiness, thanks to a simple invention that comes from Australia, have redeemed their past out there by winning races, especially races run over a long distance of ground, in which absolute freedom in breathing is all the more requisite.

The invention, which has been patented by Messrs. Watson and Gutmann in most countries, is, like all good things, so simple that one wonders no one has thought of it before, for it consists only in a few inches of strong elastic let into the webbing of the girths, surcingles, and rollers. This elastic is of double the strength of the webbing, and it does away with the necessity of extremely tight girthing. At the same time, as can be readily appreciated, it allows the horse his natural breathing expansion, thus enabling him to travel faster and last longer than when tightly girthed in the ordinary way. One might just as well expect a pedestrian to win races if tightly laced up in a corset as for horses to score despite the disadvantages arising out of girths drawn, as one at times sees them, so tightly as to divide the barrel-line into two distinct parts. The new invention has been given every trial both in jumping and flat racing in Australia, with eminently satisfactory results. In addition to reducing the pressure, and thereby conducing to the comfort of horses, it minimizes the chances of girth gall and of the souring of their tempers. The whole idea of the patent girth seems to be so good that in the interests of our thoroughbreds, and also hunters and steeplechasers, it may be well to mention that many of the best-known trainers in Australia have adopted it.—London Sportsman.

MUSKET AND ST. SIMON IN GERMANY.

One of the most successful native-bred stallions in Germany is Fels, whose stock won four races out of seven at Hoppegarten recently. Bred by the Herren von Weinberg in 1903, Fels is by Hannibal out of the famous mare Festa (dam in this country of Salute). Sold to go to Germany, Festa, a sister Desmond, produced various great winners for the Weinberg stable, inclusive of Festino, Fels, Fabula, etc. Two of the four winners by Fels were three-year-olds and the other two juveniles. Fels is by Hannibal, one of the best stallions that Germany has produced. The breeding of Hannibal is interesting, for he was got by Trachenberg (by Filibustier out of Dirt Cheap) out of Zama, a mare bred by the late Dowager Duchess of Montrose, by Hermit out of Sonsie Queen, by Musket. The mating of Hannibal with Festa therefore brought together the blood of Musket and St. Simon, a blend which has over and over again done big things in this country and also in Australia.—"Vigilant" in London Sportsman.

MOUNT ROYAL RACING FEATURELESS.

Montreal, Que., October 18.—The offering of the Back River Jockey Club this afternoon was a featureless program. A change was made in the management of the betting ring. Jack Sheehan was put in charge of the prices, instead of the pricemaker who operated with marked success at the previous meeting.

The finish of the fifth race was so close between the first three horses that there was something of a demonstration when the number of Parlor Boy was hung out first over Energetic, which had been backed down from 10 to 1 to 2 to 1.

Jockey La Masters received word by telegraph from his mother this afternoon asking him to return home at once, as his father is in a dying condition at Jeffersonville, Ind.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

E. B., Chicago. The transactions of October 15 called for $67.40 and those of October 16 for $6.95.

F. W., Cincinnati, O. Address Curtis Field or Field Bros., at Mexico, Mo.

C. J. F., Louisville, Ky. Jockey J. Dominick is riding at the Mount Royal track this week.

Geo. Gray, Los Angeles, Calif. If it really was a combination it was play or pay and lost.

M. R. B., Oakland, Calif. Racing is extensively carried on at Buenos Ayres and on a much smaller scale at Rio Janeiro, the seasons there being the reverse of ours.

LAUREL TRACK IMPROVING

YESTERDAY'S CARD FOR SELLING PLATERS WITH NO OUTSTANDING FEATURE.

Fair Helen and Yodeles Bid Up After Winning Their Races—Rumored Change of Trainers of the Big Butler Stable—Gossip of the Track.

Laurel, Md., October 18.—Today's program at Laurel was made up of a series of selling races, the conditions of which were framed to suit ordinary horses. Track conditions showed some improvement over the previous days, but the going remained heavy and lumpy in spots. It was a featureless day of racing.

Disturber, one of the choices in the opener, which finished second to Maifou, changed hands after the race, Sam Louis claiming him from Andrew Miller for $900.

William Garth engaged in the selling race activities after Fair Helen won the third race. He advanced her $400 over her entered price of $500, but she was bought in.

Jockey Mink rode two winners, Dryad and Lady London.

It is said that Capt. W. F. Presgrave will take over the horses of W. R. Coe. The latter purchased a number of high-priced horses during the past season, but met with poor success.

James Coffey, an old-time rider and recently employed as a valet by Johnny McTaggart, is in a bad way. Coffey was taken down with a severe cold, due to exposure as a result of attending the late Hugh Penny when that turfman died here last spring. Tuberculosis developed and Coffey is now confined to his bed in the homestead sanitarium at Middle Grove, N. Y. He is receiving the best of attention, but would like to hear from some of his many friends on the turf. Coffey was connected with racing in many capacities for twenty-six years.

According to a rumor, a change of trainers is to be made shortly by James Butler, whose big string is being trained at present by R. C. Benson. The latter's health has been none too good during the past summer and he is anxious to relinquish the arduous duties, which training a big stable entails. It is said that Andrew Blakeley has been selected to succeed Mr. Benson. Blakeley at present is training some horses for the California breeder, H. O. Comstock. George Odom's name has also been mentioned as a successor to Benson.

P. T. Chinn, who has been an active purchaser, both here and abroad during the past two years, of thoroughbred yearlings and broodmares, has purchased for a customer the well-bred mare Intact by Hastings—Involved, by Prince Hampton—St. Andress, by St. Simon. The third dam is the granddam of the great Rock Sand, purchased by a French syndicate from August Belmont.

H. G. Bedwell lost the promising three-year-olds Jim Savage as a result of fever contracted while en route from Canada here. W. B. Mitchell also lost the two-year-old A. Mancini.

Louis Martine has arranged to send to Kentucky for the yearling brown colt by Plaudit—Ivabel. The latter will be broken and wintered at Gravesend. Ivabel won many races for Mr. Martine during her career on the turf. She is out of Ivory Bells, the dam of Old Rosebud and Mars Cassidy.

J. W. Hedrick has sold Forum, a horse that he took out of a selling race, to Phil Musgrave.

Harry Shannon has gone to Kentucky to purchase a stable of horses for Dr. Sullivan of Toronto.

C. W. Gasser left last night for Kentucky to attend the yearling sales and intends to make several purchases.

Yodeles, winner of the fifth race, was bid up from $500 to $905 by J. J. Hedrick, but was bought in.

J. Howard Lewis purchased Sarsenet today from J. B. Goodman for $2,500. Sarsenet will be schooled during the winter months with the idea of making a steeplechaser of him.

J. Wilkerson of Toronto, owner of Brandywine, was an arrival today.

Tom Shannon, who developed the good two-year-old, George Smith, for Edward McBride, has gone to Kentucky to make some yearling purchases.

Trainer Ziegler of the Beverwyck Stable has transferred three yearlings and three two-year-olds to Gravesend from Saratoga. Lena Misha is one of the two-year-olds.

Frank Taylor has also moved six yearlings from Saratoga to Gravesend.

WORK IN PROGRESS AT TIA JUANA.

Plans for the launching of a race meeting at Tia Juana, Lower California, under the rules of the New York Jockey Club, are taking definite form. According to George Crowley, a local hotel man who has just returned from the scene of the new race track, a meeting will be held in San Francisco to bring together all the parties interested in the project and to perfect an organization and settle all details.

Crowley declares that work of construction is being rushed on the new track at Tia Juana. At present there are seventy-five scrapers and teams and close to 400 men at work. The contractor has been offered a bonus of $5,000 if the track is completed in sixty days. If all goes well with the work tentative plans are to open a 100-day meeting on Christmas or New Year's day.

"The efforts to make Tia Juana a winter racing center is not a fly-by-night scheme to make a clean-up," explains Crowley. "We are endeavoring to interest all substantial turfmen who have the interests of the thoroughbred at heart to join in the movement to launch the game on a sound, clean business basis. Alberto Madero has the concession from the Mexican government and the conditions are such that we can restore racing in the proper manner.

"It is our plan to conduct the meeting under the rules of the New York Jockey Club and if possible secure its officials to see that the races are run right. Tia Juana is located but fifteen miles from San Diego and it is only a short ride to get there. I spent a week or so there and everything is going along to get the track into shape. There are a number of horsemen already at Tia Juana and we expect plenty of horses when we announce our plans shortly.—San Francisco Chronicle of October 15.

THE RACING OF FLEET HAMBURG BELLE.

Hamburg Belle was foaled in 1901 and so, when she died, Thursday night, was taken away prematurely. She was one of the best race mares of recent turf history and winner of $84,640 as the result of having been unplaced but five times in the twenty-nine races in which she started. As a two-year-old she won the Criterion Stakes at Gravesend, Rosebuds Stakes at Sheepshead Bay and the Futurity Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, besides several purse races. The Brighton Oaks, Fall Handicap, Flight Stakes and the Hunter Handicap fell to her when a three-year-old, and when a four-year-old she won the Coney Island Handicap, Equality Stakes and, for the second time, the Flight Stakes, besides a number of purses. The next year she won the Equality Stakes again and also the Brighton Mile. She was gifted with great speed and numbers the mighty sprinter Roseben among her victims. Two of her daughters, Alster Cress and Bellefontaine, won good races in England. Her racing was done under the name of Sidney Paget, but in reality she was always the property of J. B. Haggin.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Finn's place tickets in race 23558 returned $3.50, or 75 to 100.

J. B. Viley recently sent to J. O. Keene to be broken and trained the yearling bay colt by Peter Quince—Lucasta. He is a fine colt.

W. S. Dudley is half owner with J. O. Keene in one of the best-looking fillies at the Lexington track. She is a sister to Ada Meade, being by Contestor—Hide and Seek.

Fred Schaller of New York bought the yearling filly by Waterboy—School Mistress from John E. Madden. W. J. Young will train her. Schaller is the owner of Greville.

The twelve yearlings purchased for C. K. G. Billings and Frederick Johnson in England have arrived in this country and are quartered at Belmont Park.

John Cella, b. c, 2, by Mentor—Miss Strome, the property of A. D. Cella, and which was being trained by Jake Marklein, died last week at Latonia. Marklein some time ago made the statement that John Cella was another Garry Herrmann.

At Newmarket, October 1, the German-bred colt Engelberl, by Caius—Orla, won the Friday Selling Nursery and in so doing defeated nineteen opponents so easily that Jackey was greatly impressed and, bidding him up, bought him for 320 guineas. It follows that we shall probably seem him in New York racing next year.

ENGLAND'S RICHEST RACE THIS YEAR.

The Jockey Club Stakes, run at Newmarket September 30 and won by Lanius, was of the net value of $37,200 and the richest stake race of 1915 in England. Concerning it London Sporting Life of the next day said:

"Apart from the Eclipse Stakes, which has been an unqualified success from its inception, it is doubtful whether the various ten thousand pound races have proved the attractions anticipated. The Princess of Wales Stakes, which was instituted in the same year as the Jockey Club Stakes, has during later years been considerably reduced in value, but the latter event remains one of the two most valuable prizes to be won during the season. This Jockey Club Stakes, which stood out on yesterday's card, has at times produced good contests and fallen to famous horses, but at others the race has been chiefly distinguished by its value.

"Among the greatest of the winners associated with it was the first. This was Captain 'Harry' McCalmont's celebrity, Isinglass, which had previously annexed the two other 'ten thousand pounders.' Among the opponents of the son of Isonomy was the St. Leger winner of the year, Throstle, which preferred bolting to racing, and Isinglass was left with an easy task to dispose of the remainder. Laveno, which won a year later, was merely a useful performer, but the next on the list was the late King Edward's first Derby winner, Persimmon, which easily defeated the Epsom hero of the previous year, Sir Visto.

"Love Wisely, which beat Lord Rosebery's pair, Velasquez and Chelandry, the following year, was well above the average in point of merit, while his immediate successor, Cyllene, was unquestionably the best three-year-old of the year in which Jeddah scored a surprise win in the Derby. Cyllene was followed by another champion in Flying Fox; but Disguise, Pietermaritzburg and Rising Glass were of somewhat inferior quality. Then we come to that splendid filly, Sceptre, which made a hack of the odds-on favorite, Rock Sand, Sir James Miller's triple-crown winner, however, compensated his owner by taking the prize a twelvemonth later, when there was no Sceptre in the field. In more recent years the most famous winners have included Lemberg, Stedfast and Prince Palatine. Cantilever was likewise a pretty good colt when he upset the odds laid on Tracery two years ago, following this up by carrying off the Cambridgeshire.

"There was nothing in yesterday's field with the slightest claim to challenge comparison with the best of those referred to above. The pick of the basket, so far as looks went, in the opinion of the majority were Lanius and Gadabout. The Clarehaven trainer had paid a deal of attention to the former, which had been subjected to several long gallops with Snow Marten and other inmates of the stable, and that he had thriven on his work was apparent to the casual observer. Gadabout was also admired, but Rossendale, which wore a dressing on his hocks, appeared somewhat big. Lanius, as anticipated, was the chief fancy, Mr. Neumann's colt being supported down to 5 to 2. Those who preferred to look elsewhere generally chose between By George!, Rossendale and Dame Prudent, the last-named of which was expected by those immediately concerned to play a prominent part in the proceedings, burdened as she was with but 105 pounds. This she succeeded in doing, readily defeating all save the favorite, which raced clean away near Abingdon Bottom and passed the box three lengths ahead of his nearest pursuer, Gadabout being five lengths further in the rear, with Contino fourth. By George! ran well up to the Bushes, but last year's winner, Trois Temps, did badly, finishing last. Mr. Neumann had previously won the race with Siberia, the dam of Snow Marten.

"Lanius is by Llangibby, which won the Eclipse Stakes some years ago, out of Mesange, and has on several occasions displayed useful form. As a two-year-old he won three of his seven races, one of his triumphs being recorded in the Prince of Wales Nursery at Doncaster. Last year he ran six times and won the Sandown Foal Stakes from Hapsburg. Prior to yesterday he had run twice this year, finishing third to Diadumenos and Wrack in the Jubilee Stakes, and also third to Rossendale and Black Jester in the Princess of Wales Stakes. He has engagements in both the Cesarewitch and Cambridgeshire, for each of which he has earned a ten pound penalty, which increases his weight to 126 pounds for the Cesarewitch and 119 pounds for the shorter event. Gilpin, however, has other strings to his bow."

Time, 24⅖, 50, 1:16, 1:43⅖, 1:47⅘. Track muddy.

$2 mutuels paid, Shyness, $6.50 straight, $4.80 place, $3.80 show; Malabar, $15.50 place, $7.90 show; Acis, $6.70 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Shyness, 225 to 100 straight, 140 to 100 place, 90 to 100 show; Malabar, 675 to 100 place, 295 to 100 show; Acis, 235 to 100 show.

Winner—Ch. f, by His Majesty—Mrs. K. (trained by C. Buxton).

Went to post at 4:45. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. SHYNESS moved into the lead when called on strongly and won in a canter. MALABAR raced forwardly all the way. ACIS raced much closer up than usual after losing ground on the first turn. ALSTON set the early pace, but tired in the last quarter. COUNTERPART retired after going three-eighths. The winner, entered for $400, was bid up to $805 and bought in.

Scratched—23594 Little String, 107; 23554 Lady Panchita, 106; 23554 Raoul, 111; 23028 Altamaha, 108.

Overweights—Shyness, 3 pounds; Flitaway, 1½.
